

COSTUME REFERENCE LIBRARY

Jawa

Model None, Photo by None

Description: Jawa

Prefix: DZ

Detachment: Krayt Clan

Context: Star Wars Films and EU

Jawas were passionate scavengers, seeking out technology for sale or trade in the deep deserts in their huge sandcrawler transports. They had a reputation for swindling, as they had a penchant for selling old equipment such as outdated faulty droids to moisture farmers. However, they were extremely passive beings, and hardly put up any resistance to colonists of their planet unlike the other natives the Sand people, instead seeing foreigners as an excellent business opportunity.

Please note that this costume is also eligible for membership in The Rebel Legion.

- This CRL is a work in progress.
- This costume may be approved by GMLs, but until the library entry is complete, it is suggested that this character first be submitted to the appropriate DL/GML peer review section of the legion forum.
- If you have this costume and would like to assist with the completion of this library entry, please contact your detachment leader.
- Please note that the use of the word "should" below does not indicate that the armor piece is considered open to interpretation. All instances of "should be" and "should have" will be replaced with "is" and "has", as this guide is completed.

Required Costume Components

The following costume components are present and appear as described below.

Mask

For 501st approval:

- The mask is a base upon which to mount the two glowing eyes.
- Face Shroud/mask: The face shroud is constructed of a black material or short black fur that hides the entire head and face of the costumer (No skin may be visible).
- To help conceal everything, and still allow for necessary vision and air circulation, a black mesh fabric may be used to cover over the top of the completed mask and eyes as long as the eyes can be seen when lit.
- Eyes: When the mask is worn with the costume, only the illuminated eyes are visible from inside the hood.
- The eyes illuminate by "glowing", not "projecting".
 - ◆ Meaning, the use of mini-flashlights or other reflectors that emit a beam of light is incorrect.
 - ◆ A simple incandescent lamp or non-directional LED is ideal.
- The eyes are yellow or amber in color and sized at 1 to 1.25in (2.5 to 3.2 cm) in diameter.

Hood

For 501st approval:

- The hood is a separate piece from the robe and is not connected to it.
- The hood is made of the same material as the robe.
- Brown monks cloth or a similar textured fabric is to be used.
- The inside of the hood is lined with solid black fabric.
- To achieve the correct look and maintain proper visibility, a wire or plastic reinforcement is sewn into the face opening.
- The flaps at the bottom of the face/hood opening overlap and wrap around as seen in the films.
- The hood may show signs of weathering.

Undergarments

For 501st approval:

- Black or brown undergarments are used to cover the arms, legs, and any other areas where skin or clothing might be exposed. This is to ensure that no skin or clothing is visible at any time.

Gloves
For 501st approval:

- The gloves are constructed of black cloth or black leather.
- Gloves cover the hands and entire wrist.
 - ◆ Optional: Black short fur may be attached to the gloves on top of the hands.

Robe
For 501st approval:

- Brown monks cloth or a similar textured fabric is to be used to construct the robe.
- The robe is sewn closed or has an off center (to the side) opening that runs the length of the garment.
- There are no visible seams.
- The openings of the sleeves and robe bottom are not hemmed.
 - ◆ The edges are tattered and frayed.
- The finished robe is weathered with various colored staining.

Bandoliers
For 501st approval:

- At least one bandolier is worn.
- Acceptable versions of the bandolier consist of Swedish, British, NZ, Australian, Canadian, and German.
- The bandoliers may be purchased originals or accurately fabricated reproductions.
- Bandoliers are of brown/black leather or similar looking material.
- The bandolier(s) are aged and weathered.
- All metal pieces are dull, worn and scuffed.
 - ◆ The metal pieces do not appear new and shiny or have a shine to them.
- More than one bandolier may be worn at the same time.
- Acceptable configurations include:

- ◆ One bandolier across the shoulder to the waist.
- ◆ Two crossed over the chest to the waist.
- ◆ One across the chest and one around the waist.
- ◆ Two crossed over the chest and one around the waist.

Boots

For 501st approval:

- The boots are wrapped in the same brown textured fabric as used to construct the hood and robe.
- The boots are tall enough to cover the mid-shin or higher.
- The boots are weathered in the same manner as the hood and robe.

Optional Accessories

Items below are optional costume accessories. These items are not required for approval, but if present appear as described below.

Vest

For 501st approval:

- The vest is made of a tan textured fabric.
- The vest is weathered with various brown colored staining and tattered areas.

Ion Blaster

For 501st approval:

- This is the Jawa's weapon of choice.

Holster

For 501st approval:

- The holster in which to carry the Ion Blaster.

Torch welder

For 501st approval:

The device which is used to attach restraining bolts to the various droids.

- Box frame.
- (2) control knobs on top.

- Extended torch arm.
- (2) cylinders in center.

For level two certification (if applicable):

- Made from an authentic Microflame gas brazing torch.

Droid caller

For 501st approval:

The hand held device which is used to discover the whereabouts and gain the attention of droids.

- Cylindrical tube with a silver upper section and a black textured lower section.
- Silver rectangle detail piece is attached to center.
- Several small knobs are attached.

For level two certification (if applicable):

- Made from a vintage Kobold camera flash.
